Entrants represent and warrant that their submission is the original work of such entrant, it has not been copied from others, and it does not violate the rights of any other person or entity. Entrants are limited to one recipe, per category in their respective division. For example, a student may have one entry in the breakfast category, one entry in lunch, one entry in snacks, etc.

WINNER SELECTION AND NOTIFICATION. There will be two rounds of judging. A panel of judges will conduct the preliminary round, and will select semi-finalists based upon the judging requirements below. A second round of judging will be completed to prepare the recipes per entrants' instructions, for tasting and final judging. Entries will be judged only against the other entries submitted in their category.

In the initial round, judges will review and score all submissions based on the following criteria: 50% healthy nutritional value of the recipe; 25% perceived taste; 25% creativity and originality. The highest scores in the initial round will move on to the finalist round and will be prepared in a test kitchen according to the instructions of the finalists' Submissions. The panel of judges will then judge finalists' submissions based on the same criteria set forth above, but now taking into account the results of the recipe test preparation. One entry in each category and division with the highest overall score will be declared the winner. Second and Third place awards will also be awarded based upon judges' selection. In the event of a tie, the entry with the higher score in the nutrition criteria will prevail. In the event that an insufficient number of eligible entries meeting a minimum threshold of quality are received in a particular category, the West Virginia PTA reserves the right to declare no winner in such category. All winners will be notified by mail, email and/or telephone. In the video submission category, one overall best cooking video will be selected as the winner and it will be featured on the West Virginia PTA website. Winners will be announced no later than March 1, 2019.

OWNERSHIP AND LICENSE. All entry materials become the property of the West Virginia PTA and will not be acknowledged or returned. The copyright in any Submission shall remain the property of the entrant, but entry into this Contest constitutes entrant's irrevocable and perpetual permission and consent, without further compensation, with or without attribution, to use, reproduce, print, publish, transmit, distribute, perform, or display such Submission, and the entrant's name and/or likeness, for any purpose, including but not limited to the creation of a published cookbook that includes recipes and other materials submitted by entrants along with additional promotional material as determined by the West Virginia PTA.
