

VILLAGE OF OTISVILLE
NUISANCES
ORDINANCE NO. 6

SECTION 1:

No person shall himself or by another, throw, place, deposit or leave, in any street, highway, alley, public place or square, any animal, fish, shells, shavings, dirt, rubbish, excrement, filth, slops, unclean or nauseous water or liquor, hay, straw, ashes, cinders, soot, offal, garbage, swill or other articles or substance whatever, which may cause any noisome, offensive or unwholesome smell.

SECTION 2:

No person shall keep, place or have, on or in any private house, lot or premises, in this Village, any dead carcass, putrid, unsound or offensive beef, pork, fish, hides, skins, bones, horns, stinking or rotten soap grease, tallow, offal, garbage, or other animal or vegetable matter or substance.

SECTION 3:

When any dumb animal shall die within the limits of this Village, the owner or person in possession of it shall, within twelve hours thereafter, cause the carcass to be buried at least three feet underground.

SECTION 4:

No owner or occupant of any grocery, cellar, butcher shop or stall, slaughter house, stable, barn, privy, hog pen, sewer or other building or place in this Village shall allow any nuisance to exist or remain on his or her premises: and any such owner or occupant of any such building or place, on, in or about which any such nuisance exists or remains, who, for the space of six hours after being ordered to remove or abate the same, either by the Village President, Health Officer or Chief of Police, shall neglect or refuse so to do, shall be liable to the punishment hereinafter prescribed.

The keeper or occupant of any livery or other stable shall keep the stable and stable yard clean and shall not permit, between the first day of June and the first day of November, more than two wagon loads of manure to accumulate in or near the same at any one time.

SECTION 5:

No person shall slaughter any beeves, sheep or other animals, within the Village limits, nor allow any green or salted hides to remain on any street, sidewalk or other open place, within the Village, longer than one hour.

SECTION 6:

No person shall collect or confine any hogs in pens, or otherwise.

SECTION 7:

Any failure to comply with, or violation of, any provision of this Ordinance, shall be punished by a fine not to exceed one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the County, Village or Jail not exceeding 90-days, or both such fine and imprisonment.

The power, and is hereby made the duty of such to use like diligent inquiry with respect to all nuisances of every description within said Village, which are or may be injurious to the public health, and abate the same, and to make and enter a proper complaint for each and every violation of any of the provisions of this Ordinance.

Approved, adopted and ordered published in the Otisville Star, a newspaper, printed and circulating in the Village of Otisville, this 14th day of October 1907.

This Ordinance shall take effect November 11, 1907.

(Signed) James W. Misner, President
 K. P. Pettit, Village Clerk

I, K. P. Pettit Clerk of this Village of Otisville do hereby certify that the foregoing Ordinance was published in the Otisville Star, a newspaper, printed, published and circulated in said Village, on the 18th day of October 1907.
