Words of Reflection

"The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; all who follow his precepts have good understanding. To him belongs eternal praise." Psalm 111:10 NIV

Words of Welcome/Announcements:

Prelude

Organist/pianist Jeff Burke

Call to Worship: Responsive Reading of Psalm 97 p. 817

Leader: The Lord reigns; let the earth rejoice; let the many coastlands be glad!

People: Clouds and thick darkness surround the Lord; righteousness and justice are the foundation of God's throne.

Leader: Fire goes before the Lord, and burns up his adversaries round about.

People: The Lord's lightening illumine the world; the earth sees and trembles.

Leader: The mountains melt like wax before the Lord, before the Lord of all the earth.

People: The heavens proclaim God's righteousness and all the people behold God's glory.

Leader: All worshipers of images are put to shame, who make their boast in worthless idols; all gods bow down before the Lord.

People: Zion hears and is glad, and the daughters of Judah rejoice, because of your judgments, O God

Leader: For you, O Lord, are most high over all the earth; you are exalted far above all gods.

People: The Lord loves those who hate evil, preserves the lives of his faithful, and delivers them from the hand of the wicked.

Leader: Light dawns for the righteous, and joy for the upright in heart.

All: Rejoice in the Lord, O you righteous, and give thanks to God's holy name!

*Opening Hymn

"How Great Thou Art"

77

Prayer of confession: Almighty and eternal God, who searches the hearts of all people, we acknowledge and confess that we have sinned against You in thought, word, and deed. We have not loved You with all our heart and soul, with all our mind and strength. And we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. Forgive us our sins, and help us to amend our ways. In your eternal goodness, direct what we shall be, so that from now on we may walk in the way of your commandments, and do what is worthy in your sight, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Words of Assurance: " For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is God's love for those who fear him; as far as the east is from the west, so far has he removed our transgression from us. As a father has compassion on his children, so the Lord has compassion on those who fear him." Psalm 103: 11-13 NIV

The Old Testament Lessons: Exodus 20: 18-21 and Ecclesiastes 12: 13-14

Hymn (you may remain seated): People's choice

Prayers of the People

What joys or concerns do you want to take to God in prayer?
Do you have a story to share as to how God has worked in your life recently?

Pastoral Prayer leading into the Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Gospel Lesson: Luke 12: 4-9

Response to the Gospel Lesson

Benediction

It is our tradition to form a circle around the perimeter of the church after the benediction to sing "Let There Be Peace on Earth" while holding hands. If you are uncomfortable with this, you may proceed directly to the fellowship hall for refreshments!

Closing Hymn

"Let There Be Peace on Earth"

Hymn # 431

Let there be peace on earth, and let it begin with me;
Let there be peace on earth, the peace that was meant to be.
With God our Creator, children all are we.
Let us walk with each other in perfect harmony.
Let peace begin with me; let this be the moment now.
With every step I take, let this be my solemn vow:
To take each moment and live each moment in love eternally.
Let there be peace on earth, and let it begin with me.

Postlude

Everyone is invited to the fellowship hall for refreshments and a time of fellowship.
