

PRAYER IS PRIMARY
REQUESTS FROM OUR ALLIANCE FAMILY

Alliance World Fellowship—Kuwait—Praise God; Kuwait is receiving a new Alliance church! It is an extension of the C&MA's work in another Middle Eastern country. "We thank the Lord for all that He has done," Alliance national believers write. Please pray for the church in both countries to remain strong and faithful. Intercede as well for the pastor who will lead this new congregation. Pray also that the mother church will continue to thrive despite the suffering caused by an ongoing war.

Come when you can, go as you need to.

A favorite Christmas memory from IW Kristen Cagwin: "My favorite Christmas memory is from our time in Germany making decorations for a Christmas service for newly arrived refugees from Syria. We decorated the church and then served treats and shoeboxes with gifts. It was amazing to see children and families hear about the birth of Jesus for the first time."

Mark your Calendars...Ladies District Retreat is April 3-5 in Bozeman, MT Spoiler Alert: the speaker is Melissa MacDonald from the national office. Those of us who have heard her will tell you she is a speaker you want to hear!!

Do check out the missions bulletin board in the entry way. Read about the different people groups. Very good chance to learn a little about our big world!
