

PRAYER IS PRIMARY REQUESTS FROM OUR ALLIANCE FAMILY

West Africa: Continue to pray for security issues and political crises in this region. The mounting loss of life and property is a real burden, and many are afraid to conduct normal life activities such as farming. Ask for Christ's peace to reign and for local churches to have wisdom in responding to the ongoing needs of many people impacted by loss. Pray for adequate rainfall in an area where many depend on farming to feed their families. Current moisture levels have been inadequate for planting, and the optimal window of time for sowing will close soon. Ask for God's abundant provision.

A Word about bulletin boards... please note that there are letters from International Workers on the bulletin board in the entry way. And food for thought on the board between the office and the nursery. Do check these out when you have time as they will be changing about every two weeks. The same goes for the table in the foyer, items will be changing often and once gone they are gone. Take, enjoy and pass on to others.

Kidz Kamp is over for another year. Do pray for the hearts of everyone involved. Pray for health, safety, growth, and for Christian folks to enter the lives of the kids who attended. Pray for camp to have made difference in these young lives.

"Faithfully Fit" is coming to our church fellowship hall starting July 1, 6-6:45 am Mon., Wed., & Fri. Join Debbie for fitness, fun and faith building No fees for July—just come try it out! . For more info call Debbie at 765- 2169

Brent Vernon will be here for a concert on July 21 which is a Sunday evening. Brent is from S. Florida and is a singer-songwriter, ventriloquist, and an author-illustrator. His concerts are a mixture of energetic and hope-filled music with an appearance of his ventriloquist figure Sam. Mark your calendars now as you won't want to miss this.
