

PRAYER IS PRIMARY

REQUESTS FROM OUR ALLIANCE FAMILY

Burkina Faso: Praise God for continually drawing people to Himself through the radio ministry. A young man who had decided to kill himself recently visited the radio station to share how God had spared his life through the music: As he passed by a resident's yard, he stopped when he heard a Christian song that spoke directly to his heart. Amid tears, he entered and asked to know more. As a result, he decided to follow Christ. Pray for his ongoing discipleship and for others whose lives are touched through this vital outreach.

AWANA Food Booth is this week! Have you signed up on any of the clip boards?? Remember we are famous for our PIES and we need volunteers and/or you can donate supplies or money for supplies. Catch Juanita, Pam or Linda for more info. It all starts Wednesday!!

Our Annual Church Camp-out is August 30 thru Sept 2. Shake the cobwebs off your camping gear and recipes and plan on joining us for as much as you can, a few hours or the whole long weekend. It always is a wonderful time!!

“Faithfully Fit” happens in our church fellowship hall at 6-6:45 am Monday and Wednesday of this week, then back to Mon., Wed., & Fri. mornings in August. Join Debbie for fitness, fun and faith building. For more info call Debbie at 765- 2169

A Word about bulletin boards... please note that there are letters from International Workers on the bulletin board in the entry way. And food for thought on the board between the office and the nursery. Do check these out when you have time as they will be changing about every two weeks. The same goes for the table in the foyer, items will be changing often and once gone they are gone. Take, enjoy and pass on to others!
