NAME AND PURPOSE

SECTION 1

This organization shall be known as the Cedarville Firemen's Association, known hereafter as the Association. It is a corporation, not for profit, incorporated under the laws of the State of Ohio.

SECTION 2

Its purposes are the preservation and protection of life and property from and during such fires, emergencies and life threatening perils as may occur in Cedarville Village and Cedarville Township, Greene County, Ohio, and the rendering of assistance to neighboring cities, villages, townships, and communities when requested under contracts, mutual aid agreements or direction by competent authority.

SECTION 3

The Association accomplishes its purposes by providing to the Cedarville Fire Department trained and certified personnel to prevent and combat such fires, emergencies and life threatening situations. It does this by operating equipment and material for use in these situations and by advocating fire prevention and safety awareness to the fire department, Village and Township authorities, other organizations and the citizens and residents of Cedarville, Ohio.

SECTION 4

The Association does not discriminate against any person based on race, religion, age, gender identity (including gender expression) sex, sexual orientation, or national origin. Where the words he / his or gentleman appear, they may be read as she / her or lady as appropriate. The term Firemen's Association is meant to be used generically and is considered an appropriate title for the entire membership of the Association.

ARTICLE II

MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 1

Membership of the Association shall consist of four (4) categories: probationary, association (also referred to as “voting”), inactive, and honorary. Refer to Article VI for Rules of Membership.

SECTION 2

All issues pertaining to membership shall be brought to the attention of the Executive Committee. Exception: Resignation from the Association shall be submitted in writing to the Executive Committee. No vote shall be required to ratify the resignation.

SECTION 3

Probationary members shall be appointed by the Executive Committee. They shall be entitled to no vote however still may attend Association functions and meetings.

SECTION 4

Association (Voting) members shall be elected to come off of probation at the discretion of the Executive Committee. To come off of probation the probationary member must have fully completed their probationary requirements and be in good-standing with the Executive Committee, association, and Training Officers. If these criteria are met and the end of probation is completed, the member shall be sworn on to the association. They are entitled to vote on all business presented to the Association. If the probationary member does not meet the aforementioned criteria, they shall be immediately dismissed from the association and Fire Department, shall turn in all department/association property (including uniforms, pagers, etc), and will be offered an exit-interview with their Lieutenant and/or Training Officer.

SECTION 5

Voting Members shall be 18 years of age or older, and of sober and good moral character. Voting members are entitled to vote on all business presented to the association.

SECTION 6

Inactive members were voting members who have requested a leave of absence. They must have 5 years of service as a voting member. A voting member, by personal written request, may be approved for inactive membership by three-quarters (3/4) vote of the voting members present. Reasons such as age, health, or personal job conflicts will be reasons for applying. They will maintain all rights and privileges of membership but are entitled to no vote. An inactive member may return as a voting member by written request and by approval of three-quarters (3/4) vote of voting members present.

SECTION 7

Honorary members shall, by contributing financially or by performance of some beneficial act, be elected by a three-quarters (3/4) vote of the voting members present. They shall be entitled to no vote.

SECTION 8

All probationary members of the Cedarville Firemen's Association shall take the following pledge: "I state name, as a probationary member, pledge myself to fulfill to the best of my ability, the duties of a good Association member and to abide by the Cedarville Firemen's Association Constitution. Furthermore, to complete the requirements set before me and actively participate in Association functions. I will respect my fellow members and reflect a positive image as I represent the Association."

All association / voting members of the Cedarville Firemen's Association shall take the following prescribed pledge: "I state name, as an associate/voting member, pledge myself to fulfill to the best of my ability, the duties of a good Association member and to abide by the Cedarville Firemen's Association Constitution. Furthermore, I will continue to regularly attend meetings and actively participate in Association functions. I will respect my fellow members and reflect a positive image as I represent the Association."

They shall represent the Association in any and all dealings with the Township Trustee's and Cedarville Village Council, and perform such other duties as may be assigned to them. At least one (1) of them shall attend all Trustee meetings and report on them at the next Association meeting.

ARTICLE V

MONEY AND EQUIPMENT

SECTION 1

All money on deposit or hereafter deposited under the name of the Cedarville Firemen's Association is the exclusive property of the Association and may be disbursed by the treasurer following a majority vote of the voting members present or under the authority of the Executive Board per Section five (5).

SECTION 2

Any equipment used strictly for Association business, purchased by the Association will be solely the property of the Association until it is disposed of by a majority vote of the voting members present. Any equipment for fire department use purchased fully or partially by the Association shall automatically become the property of Cedarville Township.

SECTION 3

Any member leaving the Association either voluntarily or by request automatically forfeits his equity in all equipment owned by the Association or Cedarville Township. Said equipment shall be returned to the Association or Cedarville Township within 30 days of forfeiting membership.

SECTION 4

A standing audit Committee of at least three (3) individuals excluding the standing treasurer shall be established. The duties of the committee will be to audit the Treasurer's books quarterly and at the end of the reporting year. They will provide an annual written report of their findings to the Association.

SECTION 5

The four (4) Association officers and the Fire Chief will be on the account signature card kept on file at the bank. Two Executive Board members may approve purchases which shall be submitted at the next Association meeting. Two Association officers or the Fire Chief and an Association officer must sign all checks and notify the Treasurer of the expense. Executive Board members may not sign checks addressed to him / herself.

SECTION 6

Expenditures are to be paid by a check.

SECTION 7

Money, checks, invoices or purchase orders received by someone other than the Treasurer should be placed in a sealed envelope with an explanation and deposited in the Treasurer's mailbox in the fulltime office. Payments to the Association may be deposited via cash or check, or electronically through approved mobile applications. Mobile applications cannot be used for expenditures per Section Six (6).

ARTICLE VI

RULES FOR MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 1

Section 1

All applications for membership will be presented in the following manner:

Applications will be presented to the Secretary, appropriate steps for hiring (including background check, interview, and reference check) shall be completed, and the application along with its findings shall be presented to the Executive Committee during a monthly meeting. If accepted, the applicant will then be presented to the Association as a probationary member. At that time the probationer will meet with their section lieutenant or a representative of the Training Committee, and be issued a probationary packet.

The probationary period shall last a minimum of four (4) months, but not more than twelve (12) months. An extension, beyond twelve (12) months, may be granted only by the Executive Committee for unusual reasons. After the four (4) to twelve (12) month period the Executive Committee may recommend the applicant for membership into the Association. Additional considerations for qualification towards membership may include (however is not necessarily required): completion of probationary packet, training attendance, call attendance, attitude towards service, or any other circumstances deemed pertinent during time of probation.

SECTION 2

Any member missing three (3) consecutive regular meetings will automatically forfeit his membership in the Association. This provision, however, shall be waived providing before 7 pm on the night of the Association meeting the member obtains the express permission of one of the Executive Council members or Lieutenants to miss the meeting. Members may be excused from the monthly meetings for valid reasons. Some of the reasons are illness, accidents, work or school related requirements or family situations.

Any member missing two (2) regular meetings without being excused shall be notified in writing by the Secretary.

SECTION 3

All members shall strive to conduct themselves in an upstanding manner at all times. When the conduct of a member appears to be in willful violation of this Constitution, the member may be placed on probation, suspended or expelled from the Association at the discretion of the Executive Committee. These actions will depend upon the nature and severity of the alleged incident or incidents. Any member may file charges against another by a verbal complaint followed by a written statement within twenty four (24) hours of the incident. These complaints shall only be made to an Association officer. The Secretary shall then notify the accused member in writing by certified mail (return receipt requested) within seven (7) days of receipt of written complaint of the alleged violation of the Constitution. If the accused member does not acknowledge notification, charges will stand as filed and appropriate action taken.

A formal hearing will be held within seven (7) days after receipt of the certified letter to hear the charges and determine what action will be taken. At that time, the accused member may present his defense. At least three (3) Association officers and the person filing the accusation must be present at the hearing. The hearing will proceed without regard to the presence of the charged party. After the hearing before the Association officers, a recommendation for disciplinary action will be made to the Voting members of the Association if warranted. A three quarters (3/4) vote of voting members present shall determine the final association action. Any member who has had three (3) complaints or charges upheld against him in five (5) years will be dismissed from the Association.

Acts for disciplinary action include, but are not limited to the following; incompetence, inefficiency, dishonesty, gossip, drunkenness, immoral conduct, slander, insubordination, discourteous treatment of the public and members, any act of oppression or tyranny, neglect of duty, violation of Constitution, any other failure of good behavior, or any acts of malfeasance as a member of the Cedarville Firemen's Association. This section is intended as a guide for disciplinary action only. It should not be used for personal reasons, but for the betterment of the Association.

SECTION 4

No person shall hold the Cedarville Firemen's Association, Cedarville Township, or any individual members liable for disciplinary action or dismissal from the Association.

ARTICLE VII

MEETING

SECTION 1

The regular meeting of the Association shall be held the second Tuesday in each month at 8:00 pm unless otherwise specified by the President. If a quorum, of half plus one of the current Association (Voting) Members in good standing, is not present by 8:30 pm the meeting shall be canceled.

SECTION 2

Only association (probationary and voting) members and scheduled guests shall be admitted to the meetings.

SECTION 3

The Association officers may call for a “special meeting” at any time they feel necessary within a twenty-four (24) hour notice.

SECTION 4

After a quorum has been established, roll call taken and meeting begun, should a voting member enter the room, he shall be recognized by the President and his arrival time marked in the meeting minutes. If a member leaves during a meeting, half plus one of the current Association Members must remain to finish the meeting.

ARTICLE VIII

ALTERATIONS OR AMENDMENTS

SECTION 1

No alterations or amendments shall be made to this Constitution unless proposed in writing at a regular meeting. The proposal shall be referred to the Association officers and if approved at the next regular meeting by a three-quarters (3/4) vote of the voting members present shall become effective immediately.

ARTICLE IX
